

2009 MILWAUKEE

MARCH 26-29, 2009
EWB-USA International Conference

Engineers Without Borders - USA
International Conference
Thursday, March 26 – Sunday, March 29, 2009
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

"Transformative Education: Creating Opportunity from Knowledge"

Don't Miss Out on This Incredible Event

The EWB-USA International Conference in Milwaukee, Wisconsin will feature three days of exciting programs, speakers and events. The conference boasts the best and brightest in the fields of energy, water, technology, conservation, solar energy, architecture and more. For more information about the March 2009 EWB-USA International Conference, please visit www.ewb-usa.org

Check out some of the reasons why you should not miss this great event

- Are you a professional? Come share experiences and gain insight from people who are as passionate about creating change in our world as you are
- Are you hiring or looking for interns? Come network with some of the brightest and most talented students in fields such as engineering conservation, renewable energy and more
- Want to be involved in your community? Come learn how students, professionals and faculty alike are coming together in your community to make a difference, and how you can be involved

Who is EWB-USA?

Engineers Without Borders-USA is a nonprofit humanitarian organization established to partner with remote, developing communities in more than 45 countries to improve the quality of life through the implementation of sustainable engineering programs while developing globally aware and internationally responsible professionals and students. For more information about EWB-USA please visit www.ewb-usa.org.

